

Co-Counselors are making use of the current world situation—COVID-19, the climate emergency, irrational government policies, injustice, and more—as an opportunity. They are becoming increasingly effective on many fronts, including using RC in their organizing for social change.

Highlights of this Present Time include several reports from Africa; learning more about Muslims, immigrants of the Global Majority, and raised-poor people; and reminders of the power of love and how there are no human enemies. For the April issue, please send us articles and poems by February 16 and any changes to the back-pages lists by February 22.
