

Area Outreach Funds Contribution

- For more information refer to the the Finance Sections in the Guidelines for the RC Communities (H.2, H.6, and H.7).
- Form 200 – for Areas and Developing Communities located outside the USA whose outreach money is kept in Seattle, WA, USA

That teachers of RC classes include in their calculation of the fees charged for the class, as a part of the basic expense of the class, a payment to the Area Outreach and Community Service Funds of Re-evaluation Counseling Community Resources, Inc. of 25% of the total income before expenses. This is a fee for the use of the terms “Re-evaluation Counseling,” “RC,” or “United to End Racism,” which are trade and service marks owned by Re-evaluation Counseling Community Resources, Inc. and whose use is not in the public domain.

That of this amount (25% of the total income before expenses), 70% will be kept in the Area Outreach Account and may be withdrawn for outreach purposes on application by the Area Reference Person or designated account signer in an unorganized Area.

The remaining 30% of this amount (25% of the total income before expenses) shall be allocated to the Re-evaluation Counseling Community Resources Community Service Funds and used for supporting the activities of the RC Communities through correspondence, telephoning, record-keeping, copying, computing, organizing of conferences, and for International Outreach.

Use this form when making your payments for any classes, support groups (Area and Regional), and Area-based gather-ins. If you are sending money from a Regional support group, please list all of the Area Account Numbers that will receive portions of the money.

You may include any copyright royalty money for Rational Island Publishers in the same envelope sent to Re-evaluation Counseling Community Resources, Inc. For each copy of an article, a royalty of at least $0.10 USD per copy must be paid. For further information, please see the Guidelines, K.2.
