

New Yorkers and the Climate Movement

Great Successes—More to Do! Keep On Going, Inspiring Others to Action

In this workshop, we'll share our perspective as New Yorkers on current global climate issues and how taking action in New York contributes to making progress on the climate crisis overall. The climate movement in New York has had many successes. We'll report on those successes and share how they are inspiring us and others in the climate movement.

Monday, September 18, 10:30 am - 12:00 pm

optional listening circle follows

Tools for Climate Organizing

Sustaining All Life (SAL) and United to End Racism (UER) are international grassroots organizations working to end the climate emergency within the context of ending all divisions among people. As part of New York City Climate Week, SAL/UER will present many interactive workshops that address barriers to resolving the climate emergency. Our events will also show participants how to exchange effective listening to free themselves from the emotional harm resulting from oppression and other hurtful experiences—harm that can interfere with thinking about and responding effectively to the climate crisis.
